

Report on webinar “Guide to prepare for Competitive Exams” Conducted on 21.07.2020 by Department of Management

Dr.Sandhya, Asst Professor, Department of Commerce, Manipal University, Manipal was the resource person for the webinar, she started with giving tips on how to prepare for competitive exams like how serious one should be in pursuing a career, how to devote time for competitive exams, what are books available for different exams etc. Next she stressed on different exams which students can take and how to go about it. She gave complete insight on how students from different streams can pursue their career in respective areas. Madam emphasised on new areas which are booming for students, finally she clarified doubts of students regarding exams and careers. Overall webinar gave a new insight for students and was received by a large gathering; the webinar was given a good feedback by the audience.