2. On 5/2/2020 Mrs. Shivarathna S, Alumni, SJRCW, Police Inspector, SIT, Karnataka Lokayukta, Bengaluru gave a Guest Lecture 'Women's Rights and Responsibilities' organized by Human Rights, Anti-Ragging & Anti Sexual Harassment Forum in the college.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Mrs. Shivarathna S
Police Inspector
Special Investigation Team
Karnataka Lokayukta
Organized by Human Rights,
Anti-ragging and Sexual-Harassment Forum-5.2.2020

Women's rights and responsibilities include both legislative part and the current issues around the world. Being aware and creating awareness about women's rights makes the women confident. Some of the common problems which women face in their daily life are gender inequality, sexual harassment, violence, adverse working conditions and dowry harassment.

Women should have some basic knowledge about their rights so that they would not only be able to protect themselves but also they can spread awareness among others:

- ✓ In the case of any sexual harassment case, the identity of that woman should not be revealed to the media,
- ✓ Women cannot be arrested after sunset and before sunrise according to penal procedure code,
- ✓ Women can also send in their complaints through e-mail, Tweeter, WhatsApp, etc.
- ✓ Women can also file Zero-FIR complaint in any police station (legal right),
- ✓ In Armed Forces also similar women rights exist.
- ✓ In the workplace, both in public and private sector, there should be an internal committee where the majority members should be women to inquire sexual harassment cases. The committee shall complete its findings within a time-limit of 90 days.

In India, the contribution of women in our country's development is very high and Government is also providing 33% reservations in certain electoral bodies like Panchayats.

Today the social media is also creating awareness about the Suraksha-App wherein the police will reach in 3-5 minutes to the women who are in danger.

The participation of women should be stronger so that they can fight for their rights. As nearly half of India population is women, there is also a responsibility on the women to bring about social change, to greatly eliminate cases of discrimination. Mrs. Shivarathna S is an alumna of SJRCW 2002 Batch. Recently she also passed her KAS exam.
