Anti-Ragging & Anti -Sexual Harassment Cell Report on webinar "Say no to Ragging"

On 27/07/2021 the Anti-Ragging & Anti -Sexual Harassment cell organised a webinar on "Say no to Ragging". Ms.Saniya Sabahath Assistant Professor Department of English was the moderator for the webinar.

Mr.NanjappaKalegowda, Advocate, President, Karnataka State Legal Cell, AAP was the Guest speaker for the webinar. Mrs. Rashmi A coordinator, Anti Ragging & Anti Sexual Harassment Cell welcomed the guest and the gathering. Mrs.Roopa, HOD, Department of Kannada, introduced the guest speaker.

The guest speaker Mr. Nanjappa Kalegowda briefed about the concept of ragging by specifying it's from the western country it has started. Ragging can be mostly observed with 18-21 years of age group students. Harassment is either physical or verbal, the same can be termed as ragging. There can be many kinds of ragging seen based on senior junior, mental torture, based on clothes etc.

He also specified that in the present era ragging has been reduced compared to the past and ragging or harassment has been banned by the institutions based on the introduction of guidelines and rules framed by UGC. Sir also made a clear concept on the punishment that is been given to the person one who does ragging that can be from 6 months to 10 years based on the type of ragging.

The guest speaker highlighted on the sexual harassment by specifying that mostly girls are responsible for this as it also depends on the girls behaviour. their dresscode, body language, friendship. The future of children is also in the hands of parents where parents play major role in up bringing the child with ethical, cultural, social and moral values.

Principal
S J R College for Women
Rajajinagar Bengaluru-10

The speaker also mentioned the reasons for ragging such as parents are also responsible as they spoil the child by paying more pocket money which is unnecessary, this may have an affect on the negative behaviour of child. the qualification of teachers or lecturers in the educational institutions, the raport between the student and teacher, the friends circle . few of the students may also dropout the education as they cannot over come ragging or sexual harassment. this can be a reason for dropout in education.

With this sir also briefed the measures that can be taken for avoiding ragging such as, educational institutions should conduct orientation programs based on ragging, giving correct education,taking care of achildren, making them aware about the cells in the college so that any such ragging or harassment is done the child can approach the cell andcomplain about it.

At last, the speaker stressed about the concept that now a days ragging is reduced as every student is given importance to education, there is less time when compared to earlier days, up gradation of technology has made every individual busy and every person is busy with electronic gadgets. UGC and the law has implemented many measures and provided guidelines to stop ragging, each educational institutions have abide by the rules of UGC and implemented with the anti-ragging and anti-sexual harassment cell which is also helpful in creating awareness in the students and this also helps in reducing the ragging or sexual harassment in the campus.

Later the program had a question answer session in which a few participants asked the questions and they were answered by the guests, with this few of the doubts were also cleared which were from participants.

Dr.PremaSiddaraju, Principal, SJR College for Women, presided over the webinar. Ms. Saniya Sabahath concluded the webinar with a vote of thanks.
