7.1.9 Sensitization of students and employees of the institution to the Constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

At SJR College for Women, we take proactive initiatives to instill values in our students and staff by providing opportunities for them to participate in and celebrate commemorative and national days of significance. This contributes to the strengthening of the patriotic spirit and instills values such as appreciating and paying respect to India's legendary leaders. The ideals they teach, such as Is, truth and nonviolence, equality, equity, and inclusion, are therefore instilled in young minds, assisting in the building of democracy's roots.

SJR COLLEGE FOR WOMEN
Independence Day 15th August 2019 – Report

The 73rd Independence Day of India was celebrated with gaiety and patriotic fervour at SJR College for Women amidst the morning of August 15th, 2019. The ceremony took place in the presence of Degree Director Dr. Harshini C, and PU principal Smt. Kalpana T S, and physical Education Director Dr. Paramma kuravatti. And Chief Guest, Sri. Raman. And Teaching, non teaching faculty, and students. The celebrations started with flag hoisting at 9:00 a.m. which was followed by National Anthem by the was present as the chief guest. The day's program started with the hoisting of the national flag. Immediately after this, the march past of the students was held and the chief guest took the salute. In his speech, My heartfelt wishes for the 73rd Independence Day. Probably here there is hardly anyone who woke up on the mid night of 15th August 1947 to hear India's tryst with destiny. We are born in an independent country and hence probably understand very little about insult of being governed by a foreign power. However, whenever we are away from the country we observe that non-resident Indians celebrating Independence Day with more vigour than people celebrate in the country itself. Probably it is the feeling of an identity as Indians which is behind such emotions.

The identity of being an independent country where sovereign power of deciding our destiny rests with us brings about a huge responsibility on our shoulders. We, particularly the elite who are in this campus have got double the responsibility compared to a common man, to dedicate our services and life for the progress of the nation. Hence before we point finger of anyone for the problem which the country faces, let us not forget that whenever we point finger at anyone three more fingers at the same hand point towards ourselves. We shall be failing our responsibilities as citizens of an independent nation if we do not dedicate ourselves to the service of this nation.

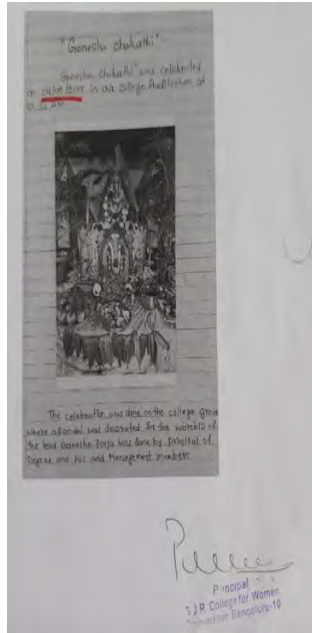

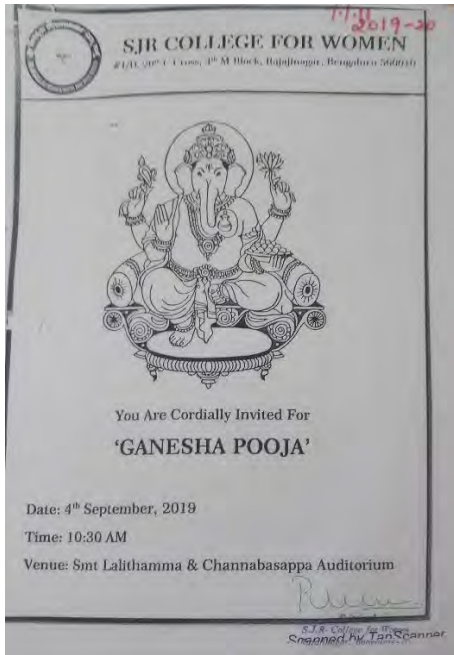

The Principal, Smt. Kalpana T.S. spoke to the gathering on the real meaning of freedom, stressing that today it is more a freedom for than a freedom from. She emphasized that freedom means to choose the right, the noble, the just, the true, turning from selfishness to selflessness, from greed to generosity, from falsehood to sincerity. Wishing the staff and students a happy Independence Day. Thereafter cultural programme and speeches were presented by the students. The enthusiasm &
